

Inclusion of children with special needs in Arts education programmes: from research to action

PhD Student Moreno, Davys

Department of Education and Psychology, CIDTFF, University of Aveiro

Advisors

Moreira, António<sup>1</sup>; Tymoshchuk, Oksana<sup>2</sup>; Marques, Carlos<sup>3</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Department of Education and Psychology, CIDTFF, University of Aveiro

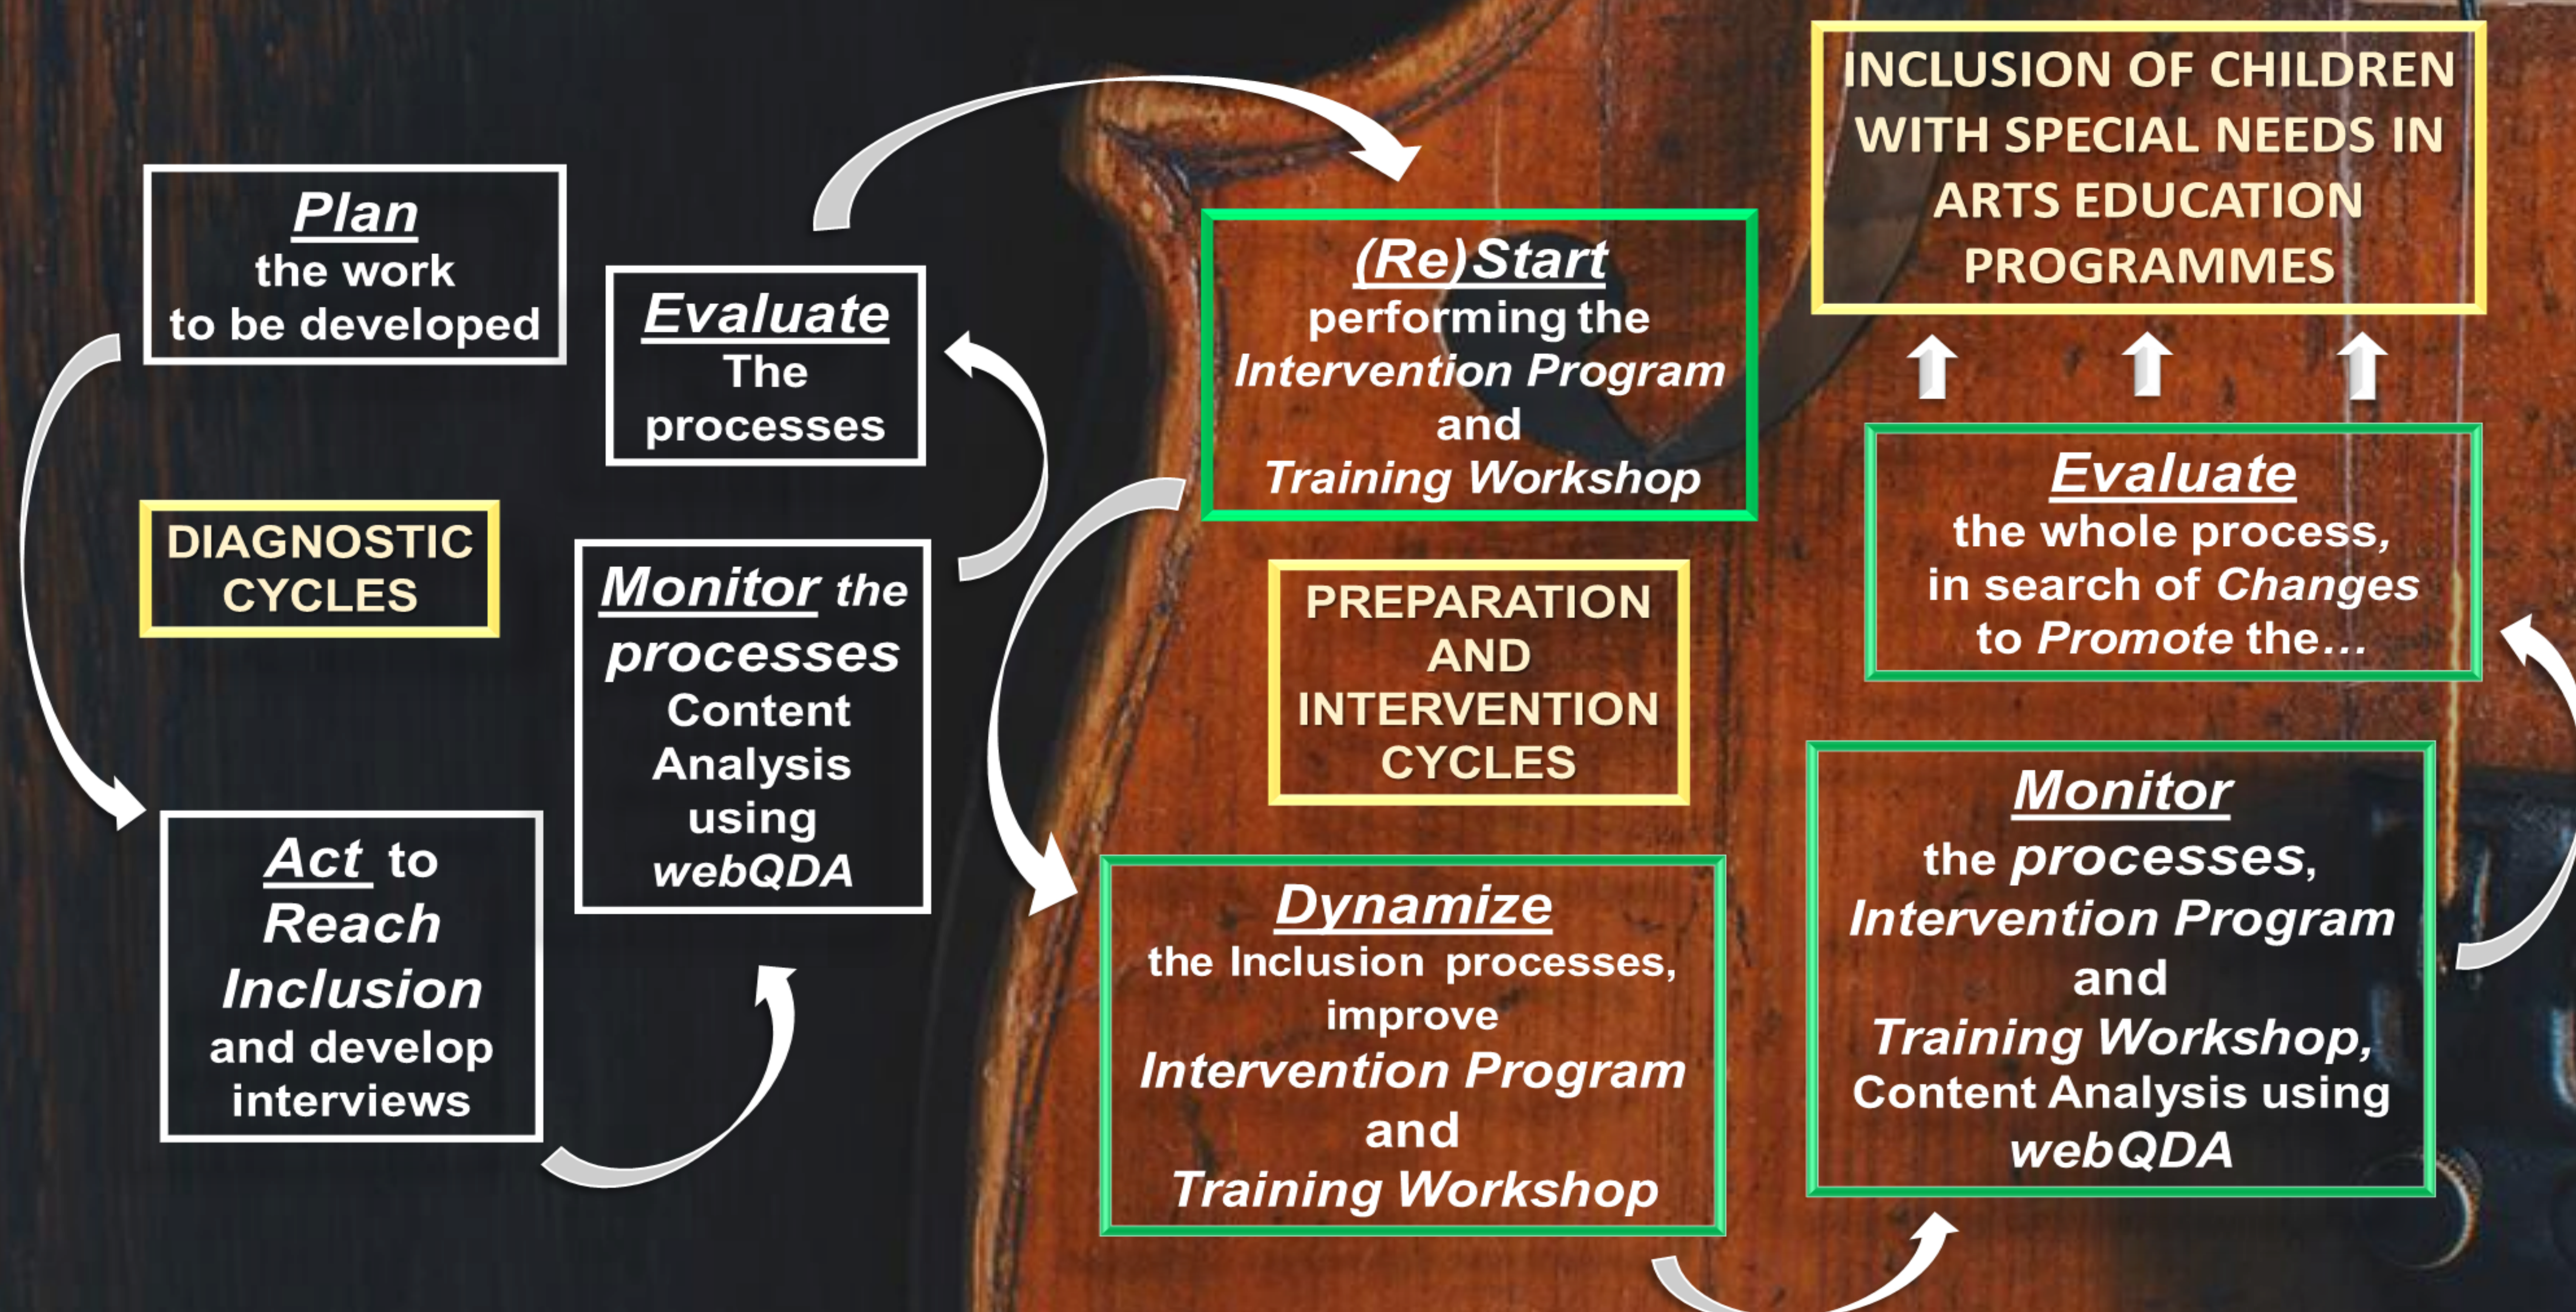

<sup>2</sup>Department of Communication and Art, DigiMedia, University of Aveiro

<sup>3</sup>Artistic School of the Conservatory of Music Calouste Gulbenkian, Aveiro

WHAT IS THE AIM?

To find solutions for children with motor disabilities due to Cerebral Palsy who enter Arts education programmes in the First Cycle of Basic Education to develop their artistic potential and abilities with Digital Technologies

ACTION RESEARCH CYCLES

Moreno, D. (2019). Inclusion of children with special needs through music in Arts education programs. In World Conference on Qualitative Research (Vol. 1, pp. 199-201). <https://www.proceedings.wcqr.info/index.php/wcqr2019/article/view/263/257>

Moreno, D., Moreira, A., Tymoshchuk, O., & Marques, C. (2020). Análise de conteúdo utilizando o webqda: opção metodológica para caracterizar uma criança com paralisia cerebral. In S.O. Sá, F. Freitas, P.A. Castro, M.G. Sanmamed, & A.P. Costa (Eds.), New Trends in Qualitative Research. Qualitative Research In Education: advances and challenges (vol. 2, pp. 687-702). Oliveira de Azeméis: Ludomedia. <https://doi.org/10.36367/ntqr.2.2020.687-702>